

Title Information Sheet

The Adventures of Chomp the Chimp

Author: Franco E. Santos, MA, Ed.D.

Publisher: Santos Press, LLC

Description:

The first book in the series of the same name, The Adventures of Chomp the Chimp introduces readers to Chomp, a young curious chimpanzee who loves to explore his forest home. From swinging through the trees to watching the animals around him, Chomp discovers that each day is full of small wonders waiting to be noticed.

Rooted in principles of early childhood psychology, told in gentle rhyme, and paired with soft, expressive illustrations, The Adventures of Chomp the Chimp children’s picture book and the series encourages innate childhood curiosity to help young readers navigate uncertainty. By prioritizing low cognitive load and gentle observation, the narrative serves as a practical resource for educators and librarians focused on mindfulness and emotional resilience in early learners. The series is intended for children ages 3-7 and geared towards family shared reading, bedtime reading, as well as classroom use.

Bibliographic Information:

Format:	Hardcover picture book	Softcover picture book
Cover Finish	Gloss	Gloss
Trim Size:	8.5 × 8.5 inches	8.5 × 8.5 inches
Page Count:	30 pages	30 pages
ISBN:	978-1-971921-04-4	978-1-971921-01-3
Library of Congress Control No:	2026903786	2026904229
Publication Date:	March 15, 2026	March 15, 2026
Language:	English	English
Country of Publication:	United States	United States
Distribution:	Distributed via Ingram and available through major wholesalers and library ordering systems.

Audience:

Grade Level:	Pre-K – 2
Age Range:	3 – 7
Intended Use:	Read-aloud, classroom sharing, independent browsing

Themes & Educational Relevance: Observation and curiosity, emotional self-regulation, gentle independence; early social learning, Social-Emotional Learning (SEL), adaptability. The book’s calm pacing and rhythmic language support thoughtful engagement and discussion during shared reading.

Series Information: This title is the first book in The Adventures of Chomp the Chimp, a series centered on quiet exploration, curiosity, and life in natural environments.

About the Author: Franco E. Santos, MA, Ed.D. is a U.S. Army Veteran and former professor of Psychology. He holds a master’s degree in Psychology and doctoral degree in Education. His work integrates developmental science with traditional storytelling to support early childhood education.